

Georgia Grown Food Showcase 2013

December 13th -14th at the Atlanta State Farmers Market

This coming Christmas Season, Georgia Grown will be hosting our first annual Christmas Showcase and Food Show. This will be a two day event held December 13th-14th, 2013 with the goal of highlighting the State's great products. The reason behind the two day event is to cater to two different audiences. Friday the December 13th will be the Georgia Grown Food show; this will be open only to restaurants, retailers, distributors and any other food service representatives. Saturday the 14th will be the Georgia Grown Christmas Showcase. Both events will be held indoors at the expo center at the Atlanta State Farmers Market. The effectiveness of this event was demonstrated at our last Farmers Showcase. Since this event will be indoors, space is limited. Once the spaces are filled, they are filled; so act fast! We look forward to seeing you there!
