

AGRICULTURAL INPUTS

It shall be the policy of the Georgia Department of Agriculture Ag Inputs Division that anyone found to be cheating, by any employee of the Georgia Department of Agriculture's Ag Inputs Division, or any proctor administering an commercial examination on behalf of the Georgia Department of Agriculture Ag Inputs Division, during the taking of any commercial examination offered by the Georgia Department of Agriculture Ag Inputs Division shall not be permitted to complete said examination and shall forfeit all fees associated with the commercial examination. Further, such individual shall not be permitted to take any commercial examination offered by the Georgia Department of Agriculture Ag Inputs Division for a period of one year from the date of said occurrence. In addition, the person found to be cheating shall be required to appear before an Ag Inputs Panel prior to being approved to take any commercial examination to provide the Ag Inputs Panel assurances that such occurrence will not be repeated.

Anyone found to be cheating a second time shall not be permitted to take any commercial examination for a period of 5 years from the date of the second occurrence. In addition, the person found to be cheating shall again be required to appear before the Ag Inputs Panel prior to being approved to take any commercial examination to provide the Ag Inputs Panel assurances that such occurrence will not be repeated.